WAYNE COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD ISSUE

by KIMBERLY BLAKER

On September 17, the Huron Board of Education discussed a resolution received from Wayne County Community College calling for a special edition.

The resolution calls for a special election for a bond issue to be held on Tuesday, November 6 in the WCCC School District area, which includes Huron Township. The millage proposal calls for a 1.5 mill increase on all taxable property within the WCCC District for a period of 10 years. This means that property taxes would increase by $1.50 per thousand dollars of taxable value. All costs for the election will be paid by WCCC.

The Huron School District received the resolution because Section 83 of the Community College Act, Act 331, Public Acts of Michigan, 1966 requires that the secretaries of all school districts within the college district be notified of the special election. Furthermore, Act 331 requires that each local school board within the WCCC district adopt a resolution calling for the special election on the date specified.

CARDINAL MAIDA DEDICATES CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY CENTER

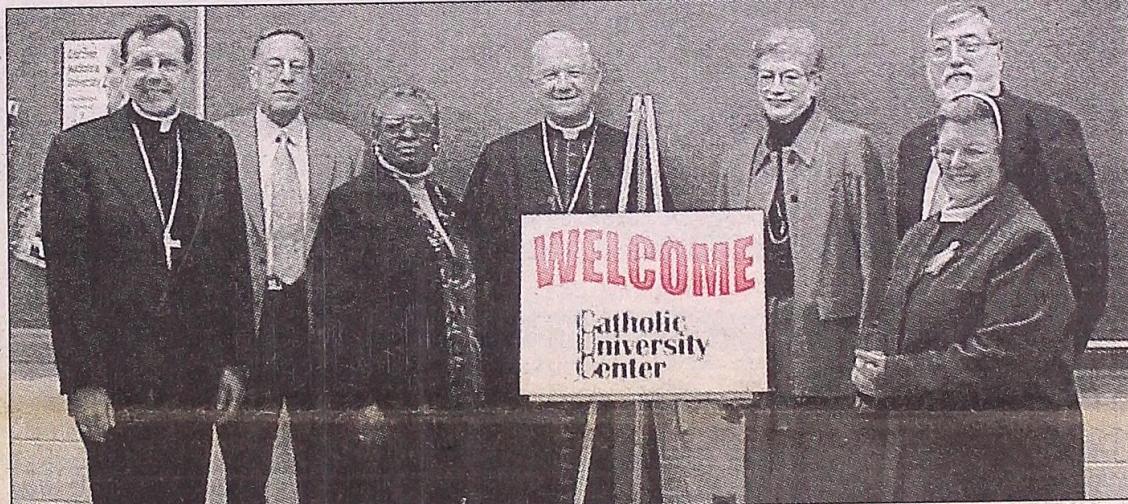

by MARGARET O'KELLEY

On September 26, 2001 the new Catholic University Center (CUC) was dedicated and blessed by Cardinal Adam Maida. The Huron River Weekly was invited to attend and we found it to be a rewarding experience.

Huron Township resident

Curtis Bartz is the Director/Administrator of the Catholic University Center and it must have been particularly satisfying to him to participate in the blessing of the University.

The dedication took place at the University location at 15601 Northline Road in Southgate and over 100 people were in attendance. Five university and college presidents attended the event and the list was impressive. Dr. Glenda Price, President of Marygrove College; Sister Rose Marie, President of Madonna University; Sister Maureen Fay, President of University of Detroit; The Most Reverend Alan Vigneron, the Director/President of Sacred Heart Seminary; and Dr. Thaddeus Radzilowski, the President of St. Mary's of Ave Maria University.

Also in attendance were Wayne County Sheriff Robert Ficano, Sally Grostic from the Southern Wayne County Chamber of Commerce. Lois Gibbons the Assistant to the Dean from St. Marys, David Dursum the Director of Continuing Education at St.

INTERIM PLANNING & ZONING DIRECTOR APPROVED

by KIMBERLY BLAKER

On September 12, the Huron Township Board approved the hiring of an interim Planning and Zoning Director after a heated discussion. Supervisor John Mitchell had added the item to the agenda under new business at the beginning of the meeting.

When the item came up, the Supervisor requested that the Board hire an applicant, William Delaney, at $32 per hour for a minimum of 20 hours per week. No benefits were offered for the temporary position. The Supervisor told the Board that the terms of employment had been negotiated between himself, the Township's Attorney Kevin Foley, and the applicant.

Trustee Larry O'Kelley chastised the Supervisor pointing out, "Again, Board direction was not followed." O'Kelley recognized that the candidate was probably qualified but questioned why other people weren't contacted.

Treasurer Jarrod Barron said that all five candidates were contacted but for various reasons weren't interested or their fees were too costly.

O'Kelley questioned why that information wasn't included in the Board packets.

The Supervisor remarked that it was too large a stack of paperwork to distribute to all board members but told O'Kelley that he could review the information at the Township Hall. The Supervisor continued, "I thought I did the best thing for the community to hire someone for $32 per hour. I may be wrong, because I run the Township by what's best for the Township..."

O'Kelley interrupted, "John, I get tired of hearing this. It is not your decision to make. It is not the three people's decision to make. It is the

VEGETABLE MOUSAKA ROUNDS

20 Eggplant - 1/2" discs
20 Potatoes - 1/2" discs

SAUCE

1 15-oz. can Tomato Sauce
2 tbs. Olive Oil
1 clove Garlic - minced
1 tbs. Pinenuts - chopped
3 tbs. fresh Parsley - finely chopped

Soak eggplant and potato discs in cold salted water, while you prepare the sauce. Sauté olive oil, onion, garlic and pinenuts in a medium pan for two minutes. Add tomato sauce, parsley, basil, dill, salt and pepper. Reduce heat. Stir, cover and simmer 10 minutes. Drain and dry the eggplant discs and using a non-stick skillet, brown both sides. In a baking dish with high sides, coat the bottom with a little olive oil and place 10 eggplant discs on the bottom (the larger ones work best) put a little sauce on each disc, then add a potato disc on each and then a little sauce. Repeat another layer of each until you have 10 stacks, 6 layers high. Try to match the sizes of the discs for more uniform stack. Cover with the remaining sauce and put some crumbled feta cheese on top of each stack. Cover and bake 40-45 minutes at 375°.

20 Zucchini - 1/2" discs
Feta Cheese/Optional

1/4 cup fresh Basil - finely chopped
1 tbs. fresh Dill - finely chopped
Salt and Pepper to taste

LOCAL DANCER INTERNATIONAL AWARD WINNER

Della Hamby, 16, Miss Michigan Talented Teen 2001 danced and flipped her way into the judge's hearts Saturday, July 28 in New York City where she was crowned Mill Hal Jackson's Talented Teens International 2001. Over 35 minority Talented Teens age 13-17 from far away places such as Trinidad and Tobago, Ghana, British and U.S. Virgin Islands, Canada and the United States competed for the prestigious title, $5,000 college scholarship, travel to Europe, Caribbean, and diamond ring. One winner shined that night proudly displaying Michigan on her banner.

Preliminary competition was held July 27 at The Roosevelt Hotel in Manhattan showcasing all of the participant's talents, however, only the Top 10 Finalists would advance to the Finals the following night. On July 28, the production opened with the Talented Teens wearing various Broadway themed costumes while in various poses in silhouette. The theme for the week was "Talented Teens From Broadway to Hollywood" where Della dressed as Dolly Levi from the Broadway musical, "Hello Dolly!" After a wonderfully choreographed number, Nicole Nicholas,

Brothers, tap danced across the stage bringing even more class to the production.

After the parade of contestants, the Top 10 finalists included Michigan (dancer), Antigua (dancer), New York (vocalist), Connecticut (dancer), Trinidad & Tobago (vocalist), South Carolina (harpist), Tennessee (vocalist), Wisconsin (vocalist), Washington State (actress), and St. Kitts & Nevis (vocalist). These young ladies then competed in Personality & Achievement (20-second speech outlining achievements/hobbies), Talent and Appearance. After Della's upbeat modern dance mixed with acrobatics to Bette Midler's "Stuff Like That There," thunderous applause filled the theater. Della has studied dance at Shearrer's Arts in Motion in Romulus, owned and operated by Melinda Shearrer. Mindy has been Della's teacher and choreographer since 1994. After three categories of competition were completed, five names were called into the prestigious winner's circle from New York (4th runner-up), Tennessee (3rd runner-up), Trinidad & Tobago (2nd runner-up), South Carolina (1st runner-up), Michigan, Miss Hal Jackson's Talented Teen International 2001.

Della wants to attend Juilliard School for the Performing Arts and dance under the bright lights of Broadway. She plans to audition during her senior year in high school. She wants to eventually become a professional model and dancer as well. She is a Junior at Romulus High School where she maintains a 3.7 G.P.A., is a cheerleader, percussionist and simply a performing arts fanatic.

board's decision to make. And you've done it before ... You justify your reasons for circumventing Board direction."

The Supervisor responded, "No, I'm not circumventing a Board direction. I'm getting tired of you calling me a liar." He continued by telling O'Kelley to make an appointment to review the matter, pointing out that the Clerk and the Treasurer "are on the team."

O'Kelley again remarked that the issue is that the Supervisor is not following board direction.

The Treasurer insisted that the board direction had been followed. He said that Williams & Works would be used as they have in the past while Mr. Delaney handles the day-to-day administrative duties. According to the Treasurer, the applicant served in Van Buren Township on an identical basis and came highly recommended.

Trustee Marlene Krause motion to hire Delaney "to speed up the process."

Trustee Nora Adkins asked how the Township heard of the applicant. The Supervisor said that Delaney's resume appeared on his desk. The motion was carried with O'Kelley opposing the move.

In other news:

- An application for a public gathering permit was approved for the Huron Sportsman's Association.

- The position for water meter reader was recently advertised and testing will soon begin in order to fill the resigned position.

- The Board accepted the September 4 resignation of its building department clerk. A motion was approved to

- A motion was carried to go out for bids for asphalt for the Senior Center parking lot. If enough funds are left after the other work on the Center is completed, the black topping project will take place this year.

- Interim Department of Public Works Director Melvin Sheets was hired as the permanent DPW director.

Dean of Continuing Education for Madonna College. Sister Nancy Marie, Vice-President of Madonna University and Dr. Ernie Nolan, Vice-President of Madonna University.

After the dedication ceremony, Cardinal Maida spoke to every individual that was there and we found him to be both a charming and devoted man to the concept of education. He told me that he wanted this campus to become a U of M, and I suggested they would need a football team. He responded with a smile and said he was already looking for land.

We sat with other cheerful people that spoke of their desire for improved education and many spoke fondly of Huron Township with its strong Catholic community and our country setting.

The Huron River Weekly was proud to be in attendance along with the Archdiocese television and press people and we look forward to reporting on the continuing progress and success of the Catholic University Center.

pressed concern over the resolution. They questioned whether it was necessary that they adopt the resolution. However, upon receiving the resolution from WCCC, the Huron District sent the correspondence to Huron Township's Clerk, Dawnnette Bowers for review. The Clerk advised the District that being a public act it must be followed.

Huron School Board members said they didn't want the community, which recently approved a millage for the Huron School District, to think that this is another millage being called for or supported by Huron Schools.

Treasurer Richard Zavodsky motioned that the "Board of Education adopt the resolution ... for a millage proposal that will allow the homeowners to decide whether or not they want an additional tax assessed ..." The motion, supported by President Calvin Schalk, was approved.

The Board, which has no choice in adopting the resolution, expressed no support for the bond issue. The resolution from WCCC stated that when the tax is first levied in 2001 it would raise approximately $32 million. However, the Board pointed out that no details were included in WCCC's correspondence or resolution on the purpose of the bond issue and how the funds will be spent if approved.
